Sri B. R. SUNTHANKAR.—Is the Government aware that there is suspicion in the minds of the Marathi people that they will not get justice at the hands of the Police ?

Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA.—Every time Sri Sunthankar puts a question, he puts it by way of insinuation or bringing about bad feelings between sections and sections. I appeal to him that these questions are not relevant and under the rules such questions cannot be put.

Mr. SPEAKER.—I have disallowed that question.

Sri K. HANUMANTHAIYA.—This is not the first time that attempt is made to bring about what is called division and disruption between Marathi people and Kannada people. That is not a happy course to follow.

Mr. SPEAKER.—Question time is over.
